THE LINCOLN HIGH SCHOOL.

Perhaps there is no Colored high school in the country with a better rating on the accredited list of the North Central Association than the Lincoln High School of Kansas City, of which Prof. J. R. E. Lee is principal. Four years ago when he took charge of this school the total enrollment was 315; it is now more than 600 and is one of the best managed educational institutions of its class in the United States.

Prof. Lee is well known throughout the country as one of the leading educators of the race. For sixteen years he was director of academic work at Tuskegee, resigning that position to take the Lincoln High School. In the management of this school Mr. Lee has maintained the standards of higher education while at the same time he has put great stress on industrial training. The students of this school are taught not only the science of mathematics, Latin, Spanish, French, etc., but are also given thorough practical training in drafting, architecture, painting, carpentry, masonry, engineering, electricity, auto-mobility, etc. The boy or girl who graduates from the Lincoln High school leaves there with all the rudiments of a practical education.

The editor of this paper was recently a visitor to this school and after spending a pleasant hour with the principal was shown through the various departments and what he saw convinced him that too much can not be said in praise of the good work being done there by Prof. Lee and his corps of competent assistants in training the minds and hands of our boys and girls, fitting them for honorable and useful citizenship—Tulsa, Okla. Star.

The Sun congratulates the editor of the Star on his intelligent conception of the work and scope of Lincoln High and its famous principal and assure him that we are justly proud of both.

CHRISTIAN CHURCH.

The auxiliaries of the church held profitable meetings during this week. The Brotherhood of the Church has completed its organization. The painting of the church inside and out is nearing completion and the Aid Society plans to put the finishing touch next week. The attendance of the Sunday School was fine and they hope to be in their separate classrooms by June 1st. Two new teachers were added. The Christian Woman's Board of Missions held a good meeting in the afternoon. The offerings for the two weeks were good. One addition to the church. Mother's Day will be observed Sunday, Miss Anna Jones, of the A. M. E. Church, and Lincoln High School will deliver the principle address. The choir will render special music.

"THE NEGRO ARTILLERY BRIGADE."

Address by General John H. Sherburne, Commander of the 167th Artillery of the 92nd Division, at Mass Meeting, Monday, May 6, 8 P. M., Carnegie Hall opening National Conference on Lynching.

At this meeting whose purpose is to secure for the negro fair play and equal protection of the law, it is my privilege as well as my duty to testify to the high achievement of the Negro in a line of military activity in which he had never before been tried.

The fighting qualities of the colored soldier are too well known to need comment, but until the German war their service had been in the infantry and cavalry arms and they had never served as artillery either in the American army or in any other army. When I was assigned to the 167th Field Artillery Brigade the artillery authorities of the expeditionary force were frank in saying that they considered the experiment an impossibility and I joined the brigade with a sad heart and a full certainty that the jaws of the trap had at last closed upon me. Even the ever kind French friends shook their heads in doubt.

But after the first day with the brigade my barometer began to go up. The first impression was the marvelous spirit of the men, their neatness of appearance, their military courtesy and their discipline was most striking and they were so earnest in their desire to learn and excel.

The brigade never failed to do creditably any task it was called upon to do, and many appreciative and flattering things were said about it by the military authorities who observed its work. Perhaps the best testimony, however, is the fact that when the intelligence officer of the German division opposite came into our lines at the close of hostilities, he refused to believe that the artillery supporting the colored infantry was not French artillery.

But perhaps beyond and above the performance of the merely technical duties was the splendid quality of the morale of the brigade. The courage of the men under fire was without criticism. The men looked for leadership but they did not show fear and were always ready to do what they were called upon for. In some instances gun crews and telephone line-men showed a very notable courage and determination under fire.

At all times and under all conditions the men showed a fine cheerfulness, their conduct was almost flawless, and they left each billet with the good will and affection of the French civilians.

I cannot pay too high a tribute to the splendid spirit of both officers and men of the brigade. The officers gave themselves to their task in the fullest measure, and the cheer of the brigade's achievement is in a large part due to their work and especially to Colonel O'Neil of the 349th, Prospector of the 350th, Carpenter of the 351st and Andrus of the Ammunition Train, but their inspiration was the spirit of the men who have shown throughout an eagerness to learn, a determination to excel and a fidelity to the rules and ideals of military service unequalled in my experience and measuring up to the highest ideal of American patriotism.

The formal announcement of the approaching marriage of Miss Ruth L. Henderson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. David Henderson, to Everett Brown, a returned soldier of Alabama for May 20th was made Thursday by Mrs. R. W. Hudson assisted by Mrs. W. Garvin. This announcement party is to be followed by a series of prenuptial affairs the first of which was given by Miss Jennie Boswell at 4 o'clock Friday afternoon. Each guest presented the bride-elect with a nice towel. The afternoon was spent with giving suggestions and receipts by some of the experienced housekeepers, after which a two course luncheon was served by the hostess. The evening was given Monday afternoon by Miss Ophelia Hayes, Mrs. Elizabeth Kipper and Mrs. Willie Travis at the home of the latter in the form of a miscellaneous shower. A very pleasant afternoon was spent after which a delicious luncheon was served. Rev. O. H. Burbridge spent Thursday and Friday in Junction City on business. The colored boys played against the white boys Monday afternoon in a game of base ball. The game was a tie. Score 8-8. Mrs. Cora Williams spent the week-end in Junction City at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Nora Williams. She was accompanied home Monday by Mrs. E. W. Finch and children, who went to Junction City the week before. Mrs. Hill and Mrs. Perrin, Wichita, are visiting friends in the city for a few days. Mr. J. C. Brown, one of Salina's prominent citizens, is planning to leave the City Wednesday morning. Mr. Brown will be missed by a large circle of friends and especially in the church. LINCOLN, NEBRASKA.
By W. W. Mosely.

Mr. Irving Bizer was called to his home in Argentine, Kansas, last Friday on account of his mother's illness. A. L. Corneal spent last Sunday in Hiawatha, Kansas. Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Corneal left Tuesday for Portland, Ore., on a vacation and to visit Mrs. Corneal's sister. Mr. Milton Choron is reported unimproved this week. Mr. Gilbert Hubbard left for Beatrice last Thursday where he and Mrs. Hubbard will take charge of the Country Club for the season. A large crowd of friends met in the A. M. E. Church Monday night in response to invitations given out by Mr. and Mrs. Walter A. Colley. The occasion was for the purpose of doing Mr. O. J. Burckhardt honor on his birth day. At a late hour the honored guests, was escorted into the room partly filled with friends who immediately began applauding. Then Mr. Burckhardt realized that the affair was on him being completely surprised. Mr. Burckhardt as well all know has been a great spokesman for the race in breaking down the barrier of race prejudice wherever he was informed it existed as the opposite race knew him to be very honest and conscientious and meant good for his race. He looked after the sick, the fallen, and spoke words of God cheer wherever it was possible for him to do so. Thus was this effort made in his honor. After listening to a special program comprising songs and addresses from representatives from different Churches, Mr. Burckhardt arose and said "If I had been called to heaven an hour earlier I would never have known this occasion to have been on foot to do me honor." Mr. W. R. Colley in a short speech presented him with a diamond cross purchased by friends of his loyalty. Next Sunday is Mother's Day. The men of the A. M. E. church will hold their annual Men's Day rally in June. Mr. S. C. Z. Westerfield sold his mother's property in this City as he resides permanently in Chicago.
